יִתְבָּרַךְ וְיִשְׁתַּבַּח, וְיִתְפָּאֵר

הוּא יַעֲשֶׂה שְׁלוֹם עָלֵינוּ,

וְעַל כָּל יִשְׂרָאֵל. וְאָמְרוּ: אָמֵן.

Let the glory of God be extolled, let His great name be hallowed in the world whose creation He willed. May His kingdom soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen.

Let His great name be blessed for ever and ever.

Let the name of the Holy One, blessed is He, be glorified, exalted, and honored, though He is beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter, and let us say: Amen. For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen

TEMPLE ISRAEL CEMETERY

At the service dedicating the Temple Israel cemetery on April 17, 1966, Rabbi Byron T. Rubenstein eloquently said, "It is here where our memories are tenderly enshrined and where the loveliest and noblest qualities of those who are buried can quickly come to mind. In consecrating our cemetery, we resolve that it will be beautifully maintained and carefully tended. May the souls of all who are laid to rest be bound up in the bond of eternal life."

In the tradition of the Jewish people, the cemetery has always been hallowed ground. Referred to as "beth olam" (abode of eternity) or "beth hayim" (abode of life), the cemetery was often the first institution established by a Jewish community. Religious services and study classes can be held in any suitable room, home, or even hired hall, but the cemetery is holy and set apart. Rabbi Robert Orkand, Rabbi Emeritus of Temple Israel, reminds us that a cemetery is a living memorial to our loved ones and a place of serenity and peace.

For more information about the Temple Israel cemetery or purchasing plots, please contact the temple office at (203) 227-1293.
